READY FOR FINALS IN GOLF TOURNEY

I. I. of Milwaukee, and Warren K. Wood, of Chicago, will play to-morrow in the finals for the championship of the Western Golf Association. In the semifinals plays at the Homewood Country Club to-day. Allis defeated former national champion Robert A. Gardner, of the Hinsdale Club, 6 and 5. Wood defeated Joseph Leduc, of Calumet. 8 and 7.

Allis's progress through the tourna-ment has been the feature of the events. If he defeats Wood to-morrow, he will have won the championship by beating two of the best golfers in America, Wood and Charles Evans, Jr., Western

Wood and Charles Evans, Jr., Western champion.

Allis took a lead on Gardner at the second hole this morning. He had command of the match from the start. Gardner was wild at times and missed a number of chances.

The youthful Wisconsin player, though often in trouble, played out with the calmness of a veteran.

DAUBERT STARRING AT BAT

Jake Daubert, the great first-sacker of the Brooklyn Dodgers, for whom his friends are claiming the premier batting honors of the National League. According to the dope of his admirers, none of the players who lead Daubert in the column have performed in near as many games as the Brooklyn first-sacker. They assert that Daubert has been at but more times than any of the men who are credited with higher batting averages, and that he has made more hits.

COLTS HAVE CHANCE TO REGAIN TOP RUNG

If Goobers Lose Two, or if They Win and Lose, While Richmond Lands Two, First Place

> Will Again Be Ours. BY GUS MALBERT.

Here's a chance to ride into first place, if— Richmond can win both games to-day from Portsmouth, and if— Norfolk can again win two games from Petersburg, then-The percentage column to-night, or to-morrow morning, will

Richmond	 54	32	.628
Petersburg	 54	34	.614

Should Petersburg win one and lose one, while Richmond is winning two, it will appear this way:

Richmond	 54	32	.628
Petersburg	 55	33	.625

This is by no means far-fetched. Up to the present time, the Colts have failed to annex a single double-barreled engagement, and they are due to cop once. Manager Griffin will start Doc Ayers. Should the Colts establish a good lead early in the game, Ayers will Classes Well Filled and Judges Are be pulled, and Joe Hudgins, a youngster who hails from Washington, but has been in and around Richmond for a year or more, substituted. If the game is close, Avers will remain to the finish, and Hudgins will start the second game.

Once within the past three weeks has anybody been able to advance a runner with a bunt. Usually it is a pop-up, or, if not that, the man on hase is forced out, the play all too frequently ending in a double, left, Dr. V. T. Churchman: second, Bracken Rose, Mrs. Alien Potts; birting fourth, and must be corrected before a lead. It is a rather serious proposition, and must be corrected before a lead. It is a rather serious proposition, and must be corrected before a lead. It is not be maintained.

Some clever plays were made by both clubs. Ducky Eberts caught several hard fly balls, as did Piez and Tennant. Comits Breshahan had a great day defensively, but again was unable to bring forth a timely smash. The same can be said of Sandy. Bill lowedell cuts up around third base, while Evans plays the kind of keystone position that one enjoys.

Duke Farrell, of the Boston Americans scouting staff, will have a chance to look at Johnny Verbout to-day. It is barely possible that John will work both ends of the bill.
